C. Terms and Conditions:

- The James Cook University SAFRA Scholarship is only available for students commencing studies at the Singapore campus of James Cook University (JCUS).
- The scholarship is only applicable for the selected Undergraduate and Postgraduate programmes offered at JCUS.
- The scholarship is at 50% of the full programme fee to SAFRA Members who will be joining JCUS as new students.
- Sponsored SAFRA Members will have to pay for a minimum of 12 subjects for a 24 subject undergraduate programme and a minimum of 6 subjects for a 12 subject postgraduate programme even in cases where advance standing is accorded.
- The scholarship amount will be offset against the final subjects undertaken.
- The scholarship is only open to SAFRA Members endorsed by the SAFRA National Service Association (SAFRA).
- JCUS has the right to reject any scholarship applications without the SAFRA endorsement.
- Scholarship awardees are not eligible for any other scholarship available at JCUS.
- The scholarship may be withdrawn at any time if, in the opinion of the University, the scholarship holder's progress or behaviour is deemed unsatisfactory.
- JCUS does not guarantee and/or provide scholars with employment upon graduation.
- If the scholarship holder decides to withdraw from the university and/or terminate the scholarship prematurely, the university reserves the right to impose repayment of all scholarship monies disbursed to the scholar.
- It is subject to the university's discretion to award the scholarship.
- Scholarship is not applicable for transfer to any James Cook University campus in Australia.
- Scholarship recipients are required to take on the role of student ambassador or any other similar role representing James Cook University to give publicity talks and testimonials as and when called upon to do so.
- In the event of any dispute the decision of the university will be final and binding.
