Event Highlights

Fireworks

Get ready to witness an awe-inspiring, vibrant display of fireworks illuminating The Meadow's night sky as we celebrate Singapore's 58th National Day.

Pre-show Performances

Early birds can also look forward to a pre-show with appearances by Mediacorp DJs as well as performances by community partners such as the APSN Chaoyang School Choir and Ensemble as well as Fei Yue Community Services' "Sign Off" and "Rubber Band".

🕒 4.45pm - 6.30pm

Freebies for Everyone

Look forward to incredible freebies that showcase our nation's rich heritage! Bring home a plant grown by Gardens by the Bay and savour the flavours of tradition with distribution of old-school snacks such as kacang putih. Also not to be missed, free ice-creams onsite of uniquely Singapore flavours specially concocted by MasterChef Singapore Season 4 Top 18 contestants! All freebies are while stock last.

Pre-event Festivities Carnival

Join us for the pre-event festivities carnival, where you and your family can enjoy a range of free activities for all ages. Explore the different bouncy castles, photo-worthy spots, inflatables of well-known Singapore landmarks such as the iconic dragon playground, a pet's walk programme by SAFRA and a parent-child competition to bring communities together as we celebrate the nation's birthday.

🕒 4.30pm onwards

National Day Concert Performances

Catch local singing gem Kit Chan claiming the stage and serenading the audiences with the classic song, "Home" marking its 25th anniversary. Meanwhile, Mavis Hee will put forth mesmerising ballads, belting out to "Moonlight in the City", theme song for the 1996 Chinese drama Tofu Street, and the classic English tune "Moon River". And for the first time, multi-faceted artiste Suthasini Rajendran will put on the inaugural live performance of her electrifying viral Tamil National Day song "Nam Singapore".
